Instructions to On-Site Reviewers:

This guide is designed to help on-site reviewers gather information from a program’s various communities of interest, based on the 2015 CoARC Accreditation Standards for Entry into Respiratory Care Professional Practice. It is important to note that this document is truly a guide. It does not include all questions that on-site reviewers could ask regarding a particular program, and, just as importantly, site visitors should ask only those questions they believe are pertinent to their evaluation of the program being visited.

All information made available to on-site reviewers before and during the interview process is to be considered confidential and shared only with the CoARC and the program/sponsor(s). Team members will be privy to opinions expressed by individuals during the interviews; the sources of such opinions are also confidential, to be shared only with the CoARC, as necessary. Prior to each interview, the interviewees must be informed about the accreditation process, the specific role of the on-site reviewers, and the importance that the CoARC places on confidentiality.
